

SCHOLAR CHANG – ELIAS YEVDASH

Serving his second year with the Feast of Lanterns is Elias Yevdash as Scholar Chang. He is making history this year by being the first Scholar Chang who has served also on the Royal Guard. He served last year as Master Horse and is an incoming sophomore at Pacific Grove High School. Australian born, Elias is a world traveler who has lived on 3 continents and whose family settled in Pacific Grove seven years ago. He is bilingual speaking Russian, English, and he is currently studying Spanish. Elias has studied the martial art of Karate. Elias participated in a set of clinical studies at Stanford University in the hopes that this research will help lead to a cure for diabetes and guide him in a future career as a scientist or pediatrician. He is the middle child of Vladimir and Natalia Yevdash and a sibling to older brother Julias and little sister Yeva. Congratulations for stepping into leadership and serving the Feast of Lanterns as Scholar Chang.

PRINCESS TOURMALINE – SIENA FISK

Serving as Princess Tourmaline has been a childhood dream for Pacific Grove native Siena Fisk. Siena is currently a junior at Pacific Grove High School. Siena is an outstanding student with a 4.333 GPA. Siena's favorite subject in school is science. Siena wants to double major in Chemistry and Psychology when she attends college in Fall 2019. Siena is a gifted musician who plays the tenor saxophone. She played in the PGHS Band. Additionally, this is Siena's third year in the Monterey Jazz Festival's Monterey County High School All Star Band and her second year as 1st chair tenor saxophone in the talented band. Siena is president of her humanitarian club, T.A.S.K. Tuesday (Together Achieving Successful Kindness). Additionally, Siena spends time volunteering at the Carmel Equine Healing Collaborative, a nonprofit organization, which provides equine assisted therapy to those seeking mental and emotional help. Siena is a three year member of the PGHS Varsity Swim Team. Siena follows her passion for swimming by lifeguarding and teaching swim lessons at the Monterey Sports Center. Siena is the daughter of Amara and Dave Korpi, and Colin and Maria Fisk. Siena has a stepsister, Tara. Congratulations on being a first year princess and a role model to the Pacific Grove community!

PRINCESS TURQUOISE – PARKER LLANTERO

Precious, beautiful, and strong like her gemstone, Parker Llantero is serving her first year on the Royal Court as Princess Turquoise. She excels academically and athletically at Pacific Grove High School where she will be a senior in the fall and serve as the Associated Student Body President. She currently serves as the President of the National Honor Society, Vice-President of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Associated Student Body Treasurer, and Editor of the Yearbook. Parker was voted "Most Kind" at PGHS this year. Athletically, she's a 3-year Varsity pitcher for the Softball team and a shooting guard for the Basketball team. She's also a member of the Tennis team and volunteered as an Assistant Lifeguard for the Junior Lifeguards program the past two summers. Having taken a number of AP courses, she maintains a 4.0 GPA, and plans to attend a service academy after graduation. She enjoys athletic challenges, camping, and hanging out with family and friends. She is the eldest of five children to proud parents Leslie and Richard. She's a shining example to younger siblings Lyndsey, Sebastian, Gideon, and Dylan. A 3rd-generation Pagrovian, Parker is honored to serve as a member of the Royal Court and be a part of this celebrated community tradition.
